‘An Act of Terror’ Questions...

- There are many definitions of terrorism. The F.B.I. uses this definition: “The unlawful use of force or violence against persons or property to intimidate or coerce a Government, the civilian population, or any segment thereof, in furtherance of political or social objectives.” Based on the information in the reading and this definition of terrorism, evaluate whether the Black Hand was a terrorist groups, and whether Gabrilo Princip was a terrorist.

- Given the severe consequences of their actions, was the Black Hand justified in assassinating the Archduke and Archduchess? How else might the Black Hand have addressed its nationalistic aspirations?

- Given the example of Serbia’s independence from the Ottoman Empire in 1885, do ethnicities seeking their own nations have other methods to address their concerns beyond resorting to terrorism? Explain.
